

"Preach the Gospel at all times and when necessary use words."
-Saint Francis of Assisi

Mrs. Weaver

Education: Graduate of Saint Bernadette School ☺
Bachelor of Arts Degree in Education from Saint Francis University, Pennsylvania Certification in English, grades 7-12, Graduate credits
from Gannon University

Family: Mr. Weaver and I have three children, Ryan, Justin and Karlee

Teaching Experience: I have been teaching at Saint Bernadette School since the year 2000.

Interests: I enjoy spending time with my family, reading and attending my children's sporting events.

Contact Information:

jmweaver5@gmail.com

www.optionc.com, www.new.schoolnotes.com

8th Grade Literature

Textbook: Holt Elements of Literature.

We'll continue to explore the elements of literature by reading stories, plays, poems and novels

*In October, we'll spend some more time with our old friend, Mr. Poe. He was one strange dude, but he did leave us with some very interesting stories!

*We will also read about the horrific events of the Holocaust through the eyes of Anne Frank and some actual survivors!

Edgar Allan Poe

Anne Frank

8th Grade English

Textbook: Houghton Mifflin English

We'll continue to practice grammar, writing papers, giving speeches and reading a novel every nine week period.

7th Grade Literature

Textbook: Holt Elements of Literature

We'll be learning new vocabulary, studying the basic elements of literature and reading some pretty interesting stories.

"Start by doing what's necessary; then do what's possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible." -Saint Francis of Assisi

